Special delivery from the North Pole

Hello down there!

Dear .....

(your name goes here)

I'm your Christmas elf and I've just landed, the day after Thanksgiving. Did anyone save me some pie? Just a small slice. Fine, a big one.

I'll stay until it's time to fly home for Christmas. By day I keep very still, but at night I like to explore, so look for me each morning.

I need a name. Pick one you like and write it below.

My name is

.....

One thing, please: no touching. Elf magic is a bit wobbly.

See you in the morning,

Your elf

P.S. Pumpkin, apple or pecan. I'm not fussy.
