A LETTER FROM YOUR CLASS ELF

Hello, everyone!

Dear class .....

I'm your class elf, and I've come to stay until the end of term. Every morning I'll be somewhere new in the classroom, so have a good look when you come in.

I'm very good at sitting still. I'm less good at sitting still near the glue sticks.

Three things I'd love: a cosy spot to sit, a wave in the morning, and please leave me where you find me, so I can find my way about at night.

Love from .....

P.S. I've already found the paper cupboard. Oh dear.

Free from elfoclock.com

OUR CLASS ELF

The elf rules

My name is .....

1. Say hello when you come in.
2. Leave me where you find me.
3. Spotted me? Keep it quiet, so everyone gets a turn to look.
4. Got an idea for my next spot? Pop it in the ideas box.
5. I fly home at the end of term.

Rule 6: nobody tells the glue sticks where I am.

Free from elfoclock.com

FOR THE CLASSROOM

24 school-day setups

No food, no mess and nothing to buy: paper, pens and what is already in the classroom.

1. Joke of the day
   The elf holds a joke card. Read the answer at home time.
2. Colouring delivery
   A half-coloured page and a few crayons on the elf's desk.
3. A kind mission
   A sealed envelope with one kind thing for the class to do today.
4. Taped to the wall
   Stuck up with strips of masking tape, the class toys on guard.
5. Cup tower challenge
   A tall tower of paper cups and a note: can you build a taller one?
6. Hiding in plain sight
   Lined up with the class toys, pretending to be one of them.
7. Climbing the wall
   Halfway up the display board on gift bows, with a string rope.
8. A book to share
   A library book and a note: shall we read this one today?
9. The elf has been colouring
   One page coloured in (wobbly) and a fresh one left for the class.
10. Paper plane airport
    A fleet of paper planes on a table runway, ready for playtime.
11. Window doodles
    Snowflakes and a snowman drawn on the window in whiteboard pen.
12. Make a paper elf
    Card, pens and a sample paper elf: can the class make it a friend?
13. Crowns for everyone
    A pile of paper crowns, and the elf wearing a tiny one.
14. On strike
    A tiny placard: On strike. Need biscuits. The class bargains it back.
15. Twisty spots
    The elf and a class toy mid-game on a paper spots mat.
16. Snowflake blizzard
    Paper snowflakes all over the elf's corner, and one to fold together.
17. Write back
    A letter with a question for the class, and paper for the reply.
18. Passport control
    A passport desk: stamp the elf's passport for every spot it finds.
19. Musical statues champion
    Frozen mid-dance on the carpet. Still playing from yesterday.
20. The great jar escape
    Wriggling out of an empty jar, its lid pushed off.
21. Dressing up
    In something from the dressing-up box, looking very pleased.
22. A present for the class teddy
    A tiny wrapped present for the class teddy or mascot.
23. Wrapping station
    Paper and tape out, so everyone can wrap a little make for someone.
24. A picture for the scrapbook
    An empty paper frame: draw something you love to go in it.

Battery lights only, nothing a child would climb to, and the elf always somewhere safe to reach.

More ideas, each with a picture: elfoclock.com/elf-ideas

A LETTER FROM YOUR CLASS ELF

Goodbye for now!

Dear class .....

It's the last day of term, and it's time for me to fly home for Christmas.

Thank you for the hellos, the ideas for my spots and all the paper snowflakes. You made this the cosiest classroom I have ever stayed in.

Have a brilliant holiday. If your teacher invites me back, I'll see you next year.

Love from .....

P.S. I've left the glue sticks exactly where I found them. Mostly.