A LETTER FROM YOUR ELF

I met your pet!

Dear .....

Last night I had a very important meeting with somebody with four paws. Or fins. Or feathers.

Their name is .....

We said hello politely. Well, they sniffed. I waved. I think we're friends now.

Just so you know, I'll sit up high this year, where curious noses and waggy tails can't reach me. If I'm ever on the floor in the morning, somebody furry took me for a ride.

Love from .....

P.S. Please tell them I am not a toy. I am a very important elf.
