My last day

Time for me to fly

Dear .....

Today is my last day, which means my work here is done and the sleigh comes for me tonight. I've packed my tiny bag (one sock, two biscuits, a lot of glitter).

Thank you for having me. My favourite bit was

.....

and the funniest thing you did was

.....

I'll be back next December, a bit older and no wiser. Until then: be kind, be silly, and save a carrot for the reindeer on Christmas Eve. They've got a very long night.

Love from .....

(elf name)

Happy Christmas

P.S. If you find glitter in odd places in January, that was me too.
